Trivantage® Introduces Drapery Linings for Elevated Window Projects

BURLINGTON, N.C., June 17, 2025 — Trivantage, a trusted partner for fabricators and provider of fabrics, linings, and notions, now offers industry-leading premium drapery linings from Hanes Fabrics to enhance window treatments. These linings increase the longevity of Roman shades and drapery by protecting face fabrics from fading, gaining moisture, and staining.

“Hanes Fabrics drapery linings add luxury to a foundational element of custom window treatments, enhancing structure, fullness, quality, and style,” said Lisa Campbell, Workroom Market Manager at Trivantage.

Among four options, Classic Sateen and Imperial Sateen are both heavyweight and offer a softened luster finish for an elegant look. Classic is a cotton sateen lining ideal for residential applications, while Imperial is a polyester and cotton blend with a subtle glow. Both linings are available in white and pale ivory.

Flannel interlining insulates against heat and cold and provides a barrier to outside noise, making it a great choice for more extreme climates or bustling city environments. Eclipse blackout lining, a brushed polyester fabric, offers superior blackout capabilities, as well as sound dampening and thermal insulation. Both linings are available in white.

Hanes Fabrics drapery linings are available in cut yardage or full rolls, allowing customers to save by buying only what they need at a competitive price.
